

Patient 101:
Lesson 8

Small steps.
Big progress.
You've got this! ♥

The Waitlist Check-In ♥

How a 60-second phone call can move you up.

Empowering Health Together ♥

A waitlist isn't a locked door —
it's a line you can help move!

It's not pushy.
It's organized. ♥

3 Moves to Move Up the Waitlist

Be proactive.
Be kind.
Be remembered. ♥

1 Confirm You're Actually Still on the List

Lists get dropped and notes get missed.
Make sure you didn't quietly fall off months ago.

A quick call confirms your spot and shows you're engaged in your care. ♥

2 Ask to Be Called for Cancellations

The most-skipped move!
Cancellations happen every single day — the person who gets called is simply the one who asked.

Be flexible if you can.
Let them know you're willing to come on short notice. ♥

3 Check Back Politely, on a Rhythm

Call every couple of weeks.
Kindness is a strategy —
the scheduler is the gatekeeper!

A friendly check-in keeps you on their radar and shows you're still interested. ♥

3 Word-for-Word Phone Scripts

Keep it short, friendly, and confident! ♥

1 The Confirm Script

"I'd like to confirm I'm still on the waitlist for Dr. [Name]."

2 The Cancellation Script

"If anything opens up sooner, I can come on short notice — please add me to your cancellation list."

3 The Routine Check-In Script

"Hi, just checking in.
No rush — thanks so much for your help!"

Quick Tips:

- ✓ Be kind and courteous.
- ✓ Have your name, DOB,
and contact information ready.
- ✓ Let them know your flexibility.
- ✓ Document the date you called.
- ✓ Keep checking back! ♥

A little effort
today can lead to a sooner tomorrow. ♥

Advocate.
Follow up.
Stay in the loop.
You've got this! ♥

Warm + easy = first in line. ♥
